IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 7th November 1967

SUBJECT—London and Liverpool dock strike—Revalidation of import licences.

No. 160-ITC(PN)/67.—Movement of goods from London and Liverpool Ports has been affected on account of a Dock Strike which started there in September, 1967. In order to facilitate shipment of goods from the said Ports against the import licences, which may have expired during the strike, or are likely to expire soon thereafter, it has been decided that the validity of all such import licences should be deemed to have been extended upto the 31st December, 1967, or for a period not exceeding thirty days after the strike is over, whichever is later. No endorsement to this effect on the licences by the licensing authorities concerned is necessary. The licensees should approach the Customs Authorities direct and satisfy them that the shipment was held up at the Ports of London or Liverpool due to the strike referred to above. No further extension will be granted.

P. D. KASBEKAR,
Chief Controller of Imports and Exports.
